Fannie May Ratcliffe, Dec. 20, 1859 - Apr. 13, 1935

Mrs. Fannie May Ratcliffe, mother of Dr. A.K. Ratcliffe of this city, died at her home in Olney Sunday, Apr. 13, at the age of 75.

John Geiger, Feb. 16, 1862 - May 16, 1935

John Geiger, whose death, due to cardiac insufficiency, occurred here yesterday morning at 9:20 o'clock following an illness of several months, was born at Carmi, IL, on Feb. 16, 1862, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wagner Geiger; and departed this life on May 16, 1935, at the age of 73 years and 3 months.

In his early manhood, Mr. Geiger came to Mt. Carmel, which he made his subsequent home, and where he was twice married. His first marriage was to Miss Rosa Eck, of Mt. Carmel, on Oct. 29, 1885, to which union was born one son, Arthur, who died in infancy. On Feb. 12, 1887, his wife died. On Nov. 3, 1892, he married again, this time to Miss Clara L. Stein, also of this city, who still survives him. To this marriage two sons were born, Edwin S. Geiger, now of Los Angeles, CA, and Walter J. Geiger, of Cleveland, OH.

Besides his wife and two sons, he leaves surviving him one brother, Joseph F. Geiger of Princeton, IN, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Schwartz, of Indianapolis, IN. He leaves also four grandchildren, and many other relatives and friends who deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement. Preceding him in death were two sisters, Mrs. Mary Lowry and Mrs. Kate Lowry, and two brothers, Chris and Henry Geiger.
