Eben[ezer] C[ouch] Litherland, Apr. 11, 1835 - Mar. 24, 1900

The Wabash county friends of Lieutenant Eben C. Litherland will regret to learn of his death. He died at the home of his daughter in St. Louis, Saturday, Mar. 24. His age was 64 years, 11 months, and 13 days. The deceased was a resident of Wabash county for many years, removing from Mt. Carmel to Grayville two or three years after the close of the civil war. He had been a school teacher in this county, but afterwards went into business, first in Grayville and afterward in Decatur, where he met with financial reverses His wife was Miss Melissa Blood of Lancaster precinct. She died some years ago. During the war between the states, Mr. Litherland served his country faithfully as a Lieutenant in an Illinois cavalry regiment. He was a man of kindly disposition and generous impulses.

George W. Arbuthnot, 1848 - April 5, 1900

The daily papers Friday contained a dispatch from Flora announcing the death in that city of Mr. George W. Arbuthnot, at the age of fifty-six years. Mr. A was a well-known business man of Flora for the past twenty years. A great portion of his life was spent in this county. He was step-son of the late George Rigg, who in pioneer days ran a tannery near Asbury. Mr. Arbuthnot was at one time in the clothing business in Mt. Carmel. Many of his relatives are yet living in this county.

Ada Garner, Feb. 1871 - Dec. 25, 1900

Grayville has again felt the chilly fingers of death as they pressed heavily upon the home of Henry Garner, and have taken from him his beloved companion and wife. Ada Garner was born in Edwards county in 1870, and lived there until about nine years ago, when she, with her husband, moved to Grayville, where she lived till her death, Dec. 25, 1900. One year ago in attendance at a Christmas entertainment she contracted a severe cold which turned into something more serious, taking her away in the midst of the Christmas merriment. Thus in time, when man has a tendency to forget, the unseen makes himself known and felt.

Ada Garner leaves a mother, six half sisters, one brother, husband, and child to mourn their loss. The funeral took place from the family residence last Thursday, at 12:30 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the deceased's friends. The services were conducted by Elder Bass of the Christian church. Interment was in the city cemetery.
"Dearest one, thou hast left us, We thy loss most deeply feel; God in his love hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal."

J[ohn] C[layton] "JC" Kershaw, Apr. 7, 1856 - Dec. 30, 1900

J.C. Kershaw, of Indianapolis, died very suddenly at his home in that city last Sunday morning of heart failure, after an illness of about two days. Mr. Kershaw was a former resident of this city, having been born and raised near Grayville. About 9 years ago, he secured a position in Cincinnati and later moved to Indianapolis, where he became a member of a stock commission firm.

He was about 42 years old and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his death. The remains were brought to this city Monday for interment. The funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Mussett yesterday morning and were conducted by Elder Bass of the Christian church. Interment was in the city cemetery.
