Robert Eugene Martin, Dec. 18, 1928 - Dec. 17, 1946

Pfc. Robert Eugene Martin, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, of Crossville, died of wounds Dec. 17 in Korea, where he was stationed with the army of occupation, the war department has informed his parents. The war department telegram received over the weekend said that the Crossville soldier died of wounds in the chest and abdomen. No further details were given, but the message said a letter would follow. Pfc. Martin, the couple's second son to die in military service, entered the army last Apr. 4 and had landed in Korea for occupation duty on Sept. 6.

A brother, Flight Officer James W. Martin, was killed on July 3, 1945, when his plane collided with another ship on a training flight over the Gulf of Mexico near Brownsville, TX. He had received his pilot's wings and commission a few months before. Mr. and Mrs. Martin said Monday that they have sent a request to the army for the body of Robert to be returned to Crossville. Robert was born Dec. 18, 1928, at Crossville and would have celebrated his 19th birthday last Wednesday, the day following the date that the army reported he died. He was graduated from Crossville community high school with the class of 1945 and was a member of the school's basketball squad for four years. Surviving are the parents, one brother, Don, and a grandmother, Mrs. James Redman, of Epworth.
