Clem McClane, Oct. 14, 1907 - May 2, 1969

Clem Timothy McClane, 61, of 706 W. 6th St., Mt. Carmel, died suddenly Friday May 2, while at work. He was born Oct. 14, 1907, in Wabash county, the son of Henry Allen and Jennie (Jordan) McClane. On Sept. 1, 1928, he was married to Edith Nola Hill, who survives.

Also surviving are eleven children, Clem Jr. of High Ridge, MO, Billy Ray of Mt. Carmel, Melvin Gene of Sterling, CO, Mrs. Linda Louise Maidlow of Kimbell, NE, Richard Wayne of Evansville, IN, Mrs. Patsy Loretta Stinson, Daniel James, Henry Allen, William Russell, Ernest Lee, and Bonnie Louise, all of Mt. Carmel; three brothers, Charles, and Bernard of Mt. Carmel, Herb of Allendale; and one sister, Mrs. Iva Bishop of Mt. Carmel; 21 grandchildren. Preceding him in death were his parents; one daughter, Della Mae; three sisters, Verle, Mina, and Mary.

Mr. McClane was a member of the Pentecostal Assembly of God and was a Diesel Inspector for the Penn Central Railroad. Funeral services will be conducted from the Roy D. Short Co. Memorial Chapel Tuesday at 2 p.m. with Rev. James Eastman officiating. Interment will be in Highland Memorial Cemetery.